Jane M. Beckering
Judges

The Court orders that the motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

Pursuant to MCR 7.216(A)(7), in lieu of granting the parties' motions to expand the record, the case is REMANDED with direction that the circuit court set a date by which both appellant and appellee may submit any and all evidentiary materials that they believe are pertinent to the issue of whether the circuit court has personal jurisdiction over appellant, along with written briefs addressed to that issue. Such date shall be no later than 56 days from the Clerk's certification of this order, but may be sooner at the circuit court's discretion. The circuit court shall then have 56 days from the date set for such submission to consider the newly submitted materials together with any previously submitted materials the court deems pertinent and enter a new order addressing the motion for summary disposition based on lack of personal jurisdiction.

Appellant's brief shall be due within 56 days from the date of that order and appellees' brief shall be due within 35 days after service of appellant's brief.

We retain jurisdiction.
